

Who We Need

An experienced CFO who is ready to take their career to the next level, this self-starting candidate is detail-oriented, organized, and focused, who has demonstrated skills in effectively using technology, multi-tasking, communicating effectively, successfully functioning under pressure, and interpreting complex information logically.

Benefits

- Safe Harbor 401(k)
- Medical, Dental, and Vision Insurance
- Aflac
- Monthly sponsored events
- Annual Retreat
- 11 paid holidays
- Up to 4 weeks paid leave per year
- Onsite gym & shower

Responsibilities

- Oversee Accounting, Financial Planning, and Cash Management
- Evaluate company financial performance and coordinate for tax and audit with external parties
- Lead system and process improvement for accounting and related areas
- Participate in the development of the company's plans and growth as a strategic partner
- Ensure regulatory compliance for recording and reporting
- Implement and enforce policies and procedures to improve overall operation effectiveness of the company
- Supervise and provide technical support to accounting and financial staff
- Provide strategic financial input and leadership on decision-making issues affecting the company
- Support the continual improvement for the efficiency and effectiveness of accounting and related departments as well as providing individuals with professional and personal growth opportunities
- Manage multi-entity financial reporting

Qualifications

Required

- Ten years of related experience with a minimum of five years' experience in the construction industry
- Bachelor's degree in Accounting
- CPA
- Ability to multi-task, work in high pressure environment
- Effective oral and written communication skills, excellent interpersonal skills
- Strong organizational skills and very detail oriented
- Proactive and solution oriented

Desired

- "Big Four" accounting experience
- RFMS software experience
- MBA with experience in change management